

CALL FOR PAPERS – DETAILED SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

We only accept work that has not been previously published.

Formatting Guidelines

Papers must be prepared using the Ini format (author instructions, English information can be accessed at the bottom of the page). Short papers have a length of 4 to 6 pages including illustrations, references and appendices, long papers a length of 8 to 10 pages including illustrations, references and appendices.

Submissions must be anonymized.

Permissions to reprint illustrations included in your manuscript must be obtained if required by the original publisher. Submissions that do not follow the Ini format and/or are not anonymized will not be accepted for reviewing.

Usage of Generative Models

The German Research Foundation states: "Only the natural persons responsible can appear as authors in research publications. They must ensure that the use of generative models does not infringe anyone else's intellectual property and does not result in scientific misconduct, for example in the form of plagiarism." (Statement by the Executive Committee of the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft \(DFG, German Research Foundation\) on the Influence of Generative Models of Text and Image Creation on Science and the Humanities and on the DFG's Funding Activities, Sep 2023)

Conference Participation

In case of acceptance one author must register and present the paper during the workshop that takes places on Sep 19 2025 in Potsdam, Germany. There will be the possibility to participate online in the workshop. In case you modify your paper, please make sure to use the update function and do not create a new submission. Thank you.
